DETAILED ACTION

1. The Amendment filed by Applicant on 11/08/2006 has been entered.

Response to Amendment/Arguments

- 2. Applicant's amendment and arguments filed on 05/02/06 have been fully considered and they are found persuasive.
- 3. The rejection of claims 1-38 under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Esselborn et al. U.S. Patent No. 6,248,839 (hereinafter "Esselborn") is withdrawn.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

4. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

5. Claims 1, 14, 17, 19, 23, 33, 37 and 38 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. In claim 1, radical polymerization."

line 3 change "the solids" to --solids--. In claim 1, Z is not defined. In claims 14, 19, 33 and 38, use the phrase "such as, for example." Description of the examples or preferences is properly set forth in the specification rather than the claims. If stated in the claims examples and preferences lead to confusion over the intended scope of a claim. Therefore, each occurrence of "such as, for example" should be deleted. In claim 17 and 37, the selected group is outside the scope of claim 1. In claim 1, the material is selected as a Markush group. In claim 23, remove the parentheses from "atom transfer

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

- 6. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:
 - (a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negatived by the manner in which the invention was made.
- 7. The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

- 1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
- 2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
- 3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
- 4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

8. Claims 1, 3-12, 20 and 22-31 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Esselborn et al. U.S. Patent No. 6,248,839 (hereinafter "Esselborn") in view of Inaoka et al., US 2005/0080298 (hereinafter "Esselborn") . Esselborn teaches a mercapto-containing block copolymers having polymethacrylic acid and polyalkylene oxide repeating groups. See Abstract; col. 6, lines 14-21; Example 1A. Although Esselborn makes it clear that the block copolymer can be used as products as dispersants in aqueous media, Esselborn does not specifically teach use with cement. Inaoka teaches in analogous art polyalkylene oxide polymers used in cement dispersions. Inaoka paragraph 0041. In view of Inaoka, one having an ordinary skill in the art would be motivated to modify Esselborn by using adding the block copolymer to a cement dispersion because the use of polyalkylene oxide polymers used in cement dispersions is common and Inaoka makes it clear to one of ordinary skill that polyalkylene oxide is a known dispersant in cement. Such modification would be obvious because one would expect that the use of mercapto-containing block copolymers having polymethacrylic acid and polyalkylene oxide repeating groups as taught by Esselborn would be similarly useful and applicable to the cement dispersion taught in Inakoa.

- 9. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).
- 10. A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
